Resumed organizational session
for 1994

ELECTIONS, NOMINATIONS AND APPOINTMENTS

Election of members of the functional commissions of the Council

Note by the Secretary-General

1. In accordance with section V of Economic and Social Council resolution 557 C (XVIII) of 5 August 1954, as amended by the Council's decision of 19 December 1968, the Secretary-General sent a note verbale to Member States, on 10 December 1993, informing them of the forthcoming vacancies in the functional commissions to be filled by the Council at its resumed organizational session for 1994, to be held on 12 and 13 May 1994.

2. Under the terms of Council resolution 1147 (XLI) of 4 August 1966, in 1994 the members of the Commission for Social Development, the Commission on Human Rights, the Commission on the Status of Women, the Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice and the Commission on Sustainable Development, are to be elected on the basis of equitable geographical distribution according to a specified pattern. The Secretary-General, in the annex to his note verbale, indicated the pattern applicable to each of the commissions concerned.

3. With regard to the Commission for Social Development, the Council, by section IV of resolution 1139 (XLI) of 29 July 1966, decided that the Member States elected to the Commission should nominate to serve on the Commission candidates who hold key positions in the planning or execution of national social development policies or other persons qualified to discuss the formulation of social policies in more than one sector of development.

4. At its organizational session for 1992, the Economic and Social Council, in accordance with General Assembly resolution 46/152 of 18 December 1991, established the Commission on Crime Prevention and Criminal Justice (resolution 1992/1). The 40 members are elected on the basis of the principle of equitable geographical distribution. They serve for a term of three years, except that, for the initial period, the terms of one half of the elected members, whose names were chosen by lot, will expire after two years (see Council decision 1992/200). In addition, each Member State is requested to make every effort to ensure that its delegation includes experts and senior officials with special training and practical experience in crime prevention and criminal justice, preferably with policy responsibility in the field.

5. At its organizational session for 1993, the Economic and Social Council, in accordance with General Assembly resolution 47/191 of 22 December 1992, established the Commission on Sustainable Development (decision 1993/207). The 53 members are elected on the basis of the principle of equitable geographical distribution. They serve for a term of three years, except that, for the initial period, the terms of 17 of the elected members, whose names were chosen by lot, will expire after two years and the terms of 16 of the elected members, whose names were also chosen by lot, will expire after one year (see Council decision 1993/201).

6. The composition of the functional commissions is given in the annex to the present document. The number of members to be elected to each commission from each regional group is indicated.
